Who pays for your expert in a medical malpractice case here in New York?

In a medical malpractice law suit here in New York who pays for your medical expert? You want to know the answer? Come join me for a moment as I share with you some great information. Hi, I'm Gerry Oginsky. I'm a New York New York medical malpractice and personal injury attorney practicing law here in the state of New York. You know that in a medical malpractice case here in New York we are required to have a medical expert who confirms number one that there was wrong doing, number two that the wrong doing caused injury, and number three that the injury is significant or permanent.

As part of the evaluation process, I as the attorney go ahead and hire and retain a medical expert, a qualified medical expert to evaluate your entire case. Now if the medical expert does confirm that we have a valid basis for a case, then we go ahead and start a law suit on your behalf. Now I go ahead and I lay out all the expenses, all the money necessary to prosecute your entire case. With the hope and with the expectation that if we are successful. Now after we are successful and obtain compensation for you for all the harms and losses and injuries that you suffered; now all the money that I have spent, all the expenses that we have paid to prosecute your case then gets reimbursed to my firm.

The reality is you don't have to pay anything out-of-pocket to hire the best medical experts possible. Instead I do; I have to pay that out of my own pocket to hire the best medical experts. Now only if we are successful do I get reimbursed for those expenses. The reality is on the front end you don't pay anything, but on the back end if we are successful, then that money gets reimbursed to us. It's like an interest-free loan, in order to go ahead and prosecute your case.

Why do I share this great information with you? I share it with you because some people have questions and want to know. Listen, I know you have multiple experts who are going to come in to support our case, who pays for that? The reality is I do. If we are successful then we get reimbursed for all of those expenses.

I realize you're watching this video because you likely have questions or concerns about your own particular matter.
